

Sponsoring openSUSE

Sponsoring openSUSE.org is sponsoring a community project and emphasizing the sponsor's commitment and support of open source and the open - source community. The sponsor may provide hardware or services, or may fund an aspect of the project. The sponsorship is categorized in three levels: Platinum, Gold and Silver.

Benefit for Sponsor

- Visibility in front of many developers (by Feb 2016: 11-12 Mio page view / month), ISVs and the open- source community. The sponsor logo appears on:
 - www.opensuse.org (Platinum, Gold)
 - download.opensuse.org (Platinum, Gold, Silver)
 - software.opensuse.org (Platinum, Gold, Silver)
 - build.opensuse.org (Platinum, Gold, Silver)
- The size of the logos depend on the level of sponsorship. Silver level logos will appear randomly.
- Sponsors can show support of the open - source community
- Sponsors can prove their technical ability in supporting a state of the art development process
- Getting an ecosystem beneficial for sponsors own development

Sponsoring concept

Level 1 Sponsor (Platinum)

- Sponsors hardware/services/funding with equivalent of at least $50,000 (list price) per year and hardware is preferably hosted at sponsor's facility
- Sponsor logo appears as described above
- Sponsor page linked off the openSUSE project start page

Level 2 Sponsor (Gold)

- Sponsors hardware/services/funding with equivalent of $25,000 (list price) per year
- Sponsor logo appears as described above
- Sponsor page linked off the openSUSE project start page

Level 3 Sponsor (Silver)

- Sponsors hardware/services/funding with equivalent of $10,000 (list price) per year
- Sponsor logo appears as described above
- Sponsor is listed on sponsor page