The openSUSE and LibreOffice Projects are combining their annual conferences together for one year in 2020 to have a joint openSUSE + LibreOffice (oSLO) Conference. This joint conference, which is combined this one year to celebrate 10 years of the LibreOffice Project and 15 years of the openSUSE Project, will take place online, from Oct. 15 – 17, 2020. The goal of the co-conference, dubbed oSLO Conference, brings together fun, smart and open-source minded community members to discuss and present topics relative to the two projects as well as open-source software development topics. People learn, teach and share their passion for open source. The conference is a free and open community event. Anyone can attend the presentations free of charge. Sponsors provide the conference organizers and co-communities with the support needed to put on such an event, while keeping the admission free.

Sponsors can connect with the amazingly talented and diverse groups of Open Source users, sysadmins, developers, designers and community leaders by sponsoring the oSLO Conference. The co-conference is sponsored by various open source projects and companies. The conference presents an opportunity to get your brand in front of open source developers, users and system administrators. Your sponsorship supports our shared interest in spreading of knowledge and expertise of open source.
